Wrinkles

Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Nov. 15

Somebody cut a freight train in two here last night while it was standing on the siding. Gosh! he must'er had er big knife and bin mity strong.

Several weeks before the election the young ladies of this place organized a young Ladies Democratic Club, and of course as is always the case whenever an organization of any kind is started, some people objected on the grounds that it was wrong for the ladies to undertake a thing of this kind. We beg to ask those people what crime did they commit in this untaking? On the other hand we ask them to read what Sheriff-elect Gilmer said in a card of thanks last week:

"I request the privilege for myself, and the democracy for Guilford county one of whose representatives I am, of most heartily thanking the noble women of our county, for the modest but effective manner in which they aided in bringing about this unheard of change of votes in old Guilford. I appreciate their sympathy and aid more than I can find words to express.'

Also what all of the candidates who were elected and the chairman and secretary of the democratic executive committee said yesterday:

"We would especially thank the ladies of the county for their presence at our speakings and the encouragement and influence which they gave so unreservedly and yet in such a becoming and womanly way."

Don't forget the concert tomorrow night at the opera house by the Metropolitan Concert Co., which is by far the best concert company that has ever been through here. Every member is an artist.

The meeting at the Presbyterian church is being well attended both day and night. Mr. Black is one of the best preachers that has ever been in the county.

At a called meeting of the board last night Mr. W. T. Kirkman was appointed to succeed Mr. F. N. Tate as alderman from the fourth ward, and Mr. Chas. Ragan to succeed Mr. Tate as school committeeman. It will be remembered that Mr. Tate resigned last week to go to Charlotte.

The Eastern Field Trial Club that used to meet at this place began yesterday with the Derbies. The membership stakes closed Saturday, an account of which appeared in Sunday's Charlotte Observer.

Officer Bennett has a rather prominent cheek, though he has not been in a scrap. It seems that he did the work himself with his own "billy" accidentally.

Don't forget Woody Bros'. concert tonight at the M. E. Church. Admission 15 cents. It will be worth several times the price of admission.

The First and Only One.

The Metropolitan Concert Company is the only attraction of the kind booked for Greensboro this seoson. They appear at the Academy of Music tonight. Of the merits of this company the Danville Register has the following to say after their appearance in that city:

"The Metropolitan Concert Company, of New York, gave a concert at the Academy of Music last night, with Julie Vallette as prima donna soprano. The star scored a decided hit with the local critics, and, in fact, the whole company was accorded generous recognition of their talents. Besides Miss Vallette, the company included Miss Jeanie Benson, violiniste; Mr. Carl Rieck, tenor soloist; and Mr. Arthur Freeman, pianist."

The Sans Souci Club.

Another brilliant reception is to be given in the Benbow parlors next Thursday evening. A most interesting program has been arranged and the event promises to be one of the best in the history of this well known club. Mr. J. T. Matthews, the genial president, says that at this meeting officers will be elected. Mr. Matthews through his untiring efforts has made a most splendid president.

REFUGEES IN WASHINGTON.

Wilmington Exiles Call On The Attorney General

TO STRAIGHTEN MATTERS OUT.

A Postoffice Inspector May be Sent to South Carolina on an Investigating Tour—Other Matters.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 15—Quite a number of the Wilmington refugees are in Washington. Yesterday afternoon a delegation including Ex-chief of Police John R. Melton, R. H. Bunting, United States Commissioner, and a justice of the peace, and C. H. Gilbert, former Superintendent of City Carts, called at the department of justice and had an interview with the attorney general. The members of the delegation refused to speak in relation to the visit to the department, but it is understood from reliable authority that the attorney general repeated what has been said heretofore, that there is nothing upon which he can base action in the matter. With the single exception of Bunting, none of them can lay claims to being United States officials.

The South Carolina difficulty remains about as it has been. The two Tolberts who are in Washington, together with J. M. Collins, who is post master at a small post office known as No. 96, and R. L. Henderson, called at the post office department and made complaint that postmasters are not permitted to attend to their official duties. The postmaster general told them that if it can be substantiated that postmasters are being interfered with, that he will do all in his power to prevent it. It is believed that the post office department may send an inspector to the state to attempt to straighten matters out.

It is known that for the present none of the North and South Carolina refugees will return, but will remain in Washington until after the assembling of Congress. When congress meets it is likely that an attempt will be made to secure a congressional investigation of the troubles at Wilmington, and at Phoenix, South Carolina.

United States Marshal Melton, of Charleston, South Carolina, is in Washington for the purpose, it is understood, of receiving definite instructions from the department of justice as to what course he is to pursue in regard to the South Carolina difficulties.

Senator Daniels, of Virginia, came over to Washington Sunday night from Lynchburg. The Senator was seen at the Shoreham hotel. He is naturally pleased at the outcome of the election in Virginia, although he says he never doubted the election of of a solid democratic delegation from the state.

Senator Daniel took a leading part in the North Carolina campaign and is greatly rejoiced that the state has succeeded in limiting, at least, the power of the present regime. He says that the people of North Carolina are much in earnest.

In speaking of the work of the coming session of congress Senator Daniel is of the opinion that not much will be done aside from the passage of the general appropriation bills, and some routine matters. He does not believe that the treaty with Spain will be ready to be transmitted to the senate during the present session of congress.

The Southern railroad will offer a very low rate for the round trip between Washington and Atlanta during the celebration of peace jubilee week. It is expected that a very large delegation of government officials will accompany President McKinley to Atlanta.

In addition to President McKinley, among those who will take part in the Atlanta celebration are Generals Fitzhugh Lee and Joe Wheeler.

Representative Howard, of Alabama populist, who was defeated for reelection last Tuesday, has arrived in Washington. The Congressman intimated yesterday that he would enter a contest for the seat against his democratic opponent.

General Ames, who has had charge of the winter camps at Summerfield, S. C., has arrived in Washington. It is rumored that Gen. Ames will shortly be transferred to some other post of duty.

Senator Mills, of Texas, was at the White House yesterday afternoon. The Senator has no business with the president, and merely called to pay his respects.

Among North Carolina people in the city, are E. V. VanMetee, and John R. Collins.

COOLING DOWN BY DEGREES.

Several Shooting Scrapes in South Carolina Yesterday.

Charleston, S. C., November 14—A special to the News and Courier from Greenwood, S. C., says:

A telephone message was received here this morning that a negro woman was shot, probably fatally, near Piney Grove church by a party of white men who were on their way here. No particulars were obtainable except that her house was fired into by a passing crowd and one ball struck her in the abdomen.

About the same time a message was received from Troy that Mr. Kennedy McCastan and a negro on his place, in Abbeville county, had a personal difficulty in which the negro, whose name could not be learned, shot McCastan in the face with a shot gun and fled in the direction of Abbeville.

A little later the news came from Verdery that John Fell, had shot a negro near that place, in Abbeville county while engaged in a personal difficulty.

As in the case of the woman, no particulars beyond the main facts can be obtained. It is known, however, that none of the lawlessness reported today except the shooting of the woman has the remotest connection with the Phoenix riot.

A despatch from Abbeville says that the negro who shot McCastan was pursued to the courthouse square in Abbeville, where he was caught and committed to jail. There is no fear of his being lynched.

STILL TESTIFYING.

General Breckinridge Before the Board Today.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 15—Gen. Breckinridge continued his testimony today before the war investigating board, dealing with the transportation of troops. He said he had gone to Cuba as inspector general, arriving at Tampa, June 1. He had observed, casually, that the preparations for disembarkation of the troops before the expedition left were quite inadequate.

He made no report of this, however, he said, because General Miles was there and could observe for himself. He said there was no preparation to land in the face of the enemy other than that which the navy might furnish. So far as he observed there were only two lighters and two scows, secured in behalf of the army before it left Tampa. His understanding was that the army and navy were co operating in this expedition.

PEARSON WILL CONTEST.

He Files a Notice at Washington to That Effect.

Washington, Nov. 14—Richmond Pearson, the present congressman from the 9th district, will contest the seat of W. T. Crawford, the democratic congressman-elect, and has already filed notice with the clerk of the house here to that effect. The majority of Crawford is less than 100, according to republican estimates, and one of the grounds of contest will be the alleged purchase of votes by democrats in that district.

The Post, in a resume of members-elect to the next congress, says in this connection:

One of the former democratic representatives to come back to the house is William Thomas Crawford, of Waynesville, in the Ninth North Carolina district. This district has been fighting ground for many years, and the representatives have been in turn democrats and republicans. Mr. Crawford defeated Hamilton G. Ewart, now serving as a federal judge in North Carolina under a recent appointment, for the Fifty-second Congress, and two years later he defeated Jeter C. Pritchard, now United States Senator. For the fifty-fourth congress Mr. Crawford was defeated by representative Richmond Pearson, whom he now defeats for the fifty-sixth congress. Mr. Pearson, however, who is a member of the house committee on foreign affairs, has already made known his intention to contest the seat and the controversy will, without doubt be taken before the house.

THEIR FRIENDS.

It is disgusting to an intelligent southern man to listen to the silly twaddle of a fresh northerner about the treatment of the colored race by the white people of the south. In our native county, Moore, there is a beautiful village, Southern Pines, that was built, settled and is governed by people from New England and the northern states. It is distinctively a northern town in a southern clime.

From the printed reports of the northern man's love and friendship for the colored race one would most naturally suppose that in Southern Pines would be seen an example of how the southern whites should live with the negro. But how is it? Dr. Gladman, a Washington City physician. who conducts a sanitarium at Southern Pines, in an interview with a Washington Post reporter a few days ago, said:

"I am in a North Carolina town which is altogether outside the zone of race disturbances. It is equal to Washington Irving's Sleepy Hollow, for freedom from bloodshed and disturbances and also affords a very good illustration of how circumstances alter cases. Southern Pines was founded by eastern capitalists as a resort for invalids, and hundreds go there every winter seeking restoration of health. Its founders, notwithstanding their birth-place and traditions, did not allow any sentimental notions about the negroes to enter in their plans. No negro is allowed to live or do business in Southern Pines. They are all congregated in a place called 'Jimtown,' and when they visit the town proper, are models of quiet and orderly behavior."

There you have it! There is the northern man's boasted regard and friendship for the "poor, oppressed and down-trodden race." Negroes are not even permitted to live in the same town with the whites. They are practically colonized on a small scale. Commenting on this subject, the Charlotte Observer says:

"It is invariably the case that when the Northerner comes south he changes his views on the negro question. Southern Pines is the only town in North Carolina in which negroes are not allowed to live. They are not even employed as servants, the hotel help being white girls, and white men being employed for other menial duties. And yet Southern Pines is a northern man's town. Look at it every way you will, the truth stands that the negro's best friend is the southern white man. The northerner, as a matter of fact cannot tolerate the negro. The southerner feeds and clothes him; builds school houses, hospitals and asylums for him; goes his bond to keep out of jail; lends him money; gives his family medicine when they are sick, and sets up grog for the men, bandanas for the women and tricks for the children at Christmas time."

To the man who said the white people of Wilmington should be severely dealt with (or words to that effect) for the part they took in restoring law and order we commend the article on the third page of this morning's News and Observer, and especially that part of it which is a report of Rev. Dr. Peyton H. Hoge's sermon at the First Presbyterian church on Sunday. Let him read that. Let him feel the pulse of any true-blooded North Carolinian on this subject, and if he expects to live here and do a flourishing business he will find he has made a grave mistake in his idea of punishing Wilmington citizens.

The attention of Senator Pritchard and Governor Russell, and, indeed, President McKinley, is called to the store-breaking and robbery in broad daylight committed in this city last Sunday by soldiers who were en route south. Not only this, but while the train was standing across South Elm street there were repeated gunshots. There was loud swearing and a free use of obscene language. And this happened just before eleven o'clock, while people were passing on their way to church. Take every election precinct in North Carolina and put together every election held for twenty years and you will not find as much flagrant law-breaking as was indulged in by United States soldiers who passed through Greensboro last Sunday. And yet Pritchard and Russell talked about ordering federal troops here to make North Carolinians behave themselves at the election!

It is given out from Washington todays as coming from Chairman Dingley, that the war tax will not be changed at the coming session of congress, and that it is likely to continue unchanged for a year longer. Mr. Dingley says: "The government will need for some time all the revenue produced by the war taxes. During the month of October the war expenditures exceeded the war revenue by some $14,000,000, and this month they will be $10,000,000 in excess. There will be no changes, at least this fiscal year. The war revenue act will continue in force and unchanged, except, perhaps, in a few minor administrative features, for at least a year longer."

A negro preacher in New York thinks the negroes of North Carolina should lynch Mayor Waddell, of Wilmington. The New York negro would do as well to keep his mouth shut. It is well for him that he is talking at long range. If he has any sense he will let North Carolina negroes alone. They are doing very well at present, and intelligent men of that race who want to live in peace, will not thank anybody, white or black, for further inciting the negroes to violence.

We do not wish to be inquisitive, but really we would like to know how much rice was gathered on our state rice farm this year. We were led to fear that the size of the crop would seriously affect the market price, but so far we have seen no disturbance in the market, nor heard of any rice. Can't Captain Rice gin a treat?—Morning Post.

NAVAL OFFICER SUICIDES.

Lieutenant Dresel Abbreviates His Earthly Existence.

Baltimore. Md., Nov. 14—Lieutenant Herman G. Dresel, of the United States navy, committed suicide in the Carrollton hotel, in this city, shortly after 11 o'clock this morning by shooting himself in the head.

Lieutenant Dresel, it is thought, reached this city some time this morning and repaired to the Carrollton. He did not register but after lingering about the lobby for a short time, went to the toilet room and locked the door Almost immediately thereafter a pistol shot alarmed the employees of the house and a search revealed the fact that Dresel was dead.

In one of the pockets of his coat was found an order from Secretary of the Navy Long, dated November 11th, detaching the unfortunate man from the United States ship Essex and ordering him to repair to San Francisco, from which he was to go to Hong Kong and thence to Manila to join the Zafiro.

A telegram addressed to Lieutenant C. H. Fales. in Washington, and signed by Dresel, which was found on the dead man, requested Fales to exchange orders with the writer, and it was evidently the intention of Dresel to have sent this.

He is supposed to have committed the deed during a fit of melancholy.

Dresel was 38 or 40 years of age. He entered the navy on September 22, 1876, at Annapolis, having been appointed from Ohio. On May 4, 1896, he was made a lieutenant. During the Spanish-American war he served on board the Puritan. Following the war he was transferred to the Essex.

Annapolis, Md., November 14—Lieutenant Dresel was well known here, having been stationed here before the war with Spain. He was under treatment several times for mental derangement. He imagined that he was in a state of physical and mental collapse and unfit for further duty. Rest restored him. He leaves a wife and two children.

From New Zealand.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov.23,1896. I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

Oak Ridge Versus Guilford College.

There will be a game of football at Athletic Park Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock between Oak Ridge Institute and Guilford College. Both teams are in excellent practice, and each is confident of winning the game. Guilford's team is much stronger than when it opened the season, and has been playing good ball. While Oak Ridge's team has not been recruited, their superior training is recognized by every team they tackle. In the game with Bingham Saturday, in which Bingham was defeated by a score of 6 to 4, Bingham played good ball, but the terrific onslaughts of Bennett, Joyner, Taylor, and others, for Oak Ridge, won the game.

The game here Saturday will be perhaps the most interesting we have yet had, and the last game Oak Ridge will play on our grounds this season.

ALLIGATORS AT PLAY.

How the Ungainly Creatures Conduct a Game of Pyramid.

Did you ever see the zoo alligators play pyramid or any other of their famous games? They wrestle like old time Greco-Roman boys and strain and struggle in all sorts of ways at it. When finally one wins by getting the other on his back, a funnier thing occurs. The victor makes a sound like escaping steam, then the others make sounds like escaping steam—alligators' applause, if you please. Then they all become still and watch the vanquished brother squirm to get off of his back and on to his legs again. If he's longer in doing it than the gang think is proper, they move up in single file and give him a jab with their jaw in his upturned belly. When finally he gets himself righted, all hands again set up the steam escaping racket, cheering him long and as loud as they did his victor. Their meaning no fight is shown by their never hurting each other.

Another of the great midsummer pastimes of these zoo alligators is playing pyramid. The gators play pyramid several times a day. To see it done you'd declare that the ugly things had been trained to it. But no. It's just one of the ways of the sporty side of their life. The game comes on by one of the bigger alligators uttering the steam hissing noise. This calls the others to attention. Then the big one says a line or two of alligator talk and stretches himself full length in the center of the pen. No sooner is this done than a little bit smaller alligator crawls on top of the other and stretches out lengthwise, but head to tail with the other. The second one being settled, he lets off a little steam talk, and a third, a little smaller alligator, climbs up on top of the second and settles down as the second did. They keep this up until six or seven have builded themselves into as strange and wonderful a pyramid as ever an eye beheld. After each one has settled on top of the other he lies perfectly motionless, so that when the pyramid is completed it appears as some marvelous carving.

But this effect lasts only about two minutes after the pyramid is finished. Then comes a new chapter of the act. The Sandow-gator underneath all starts to crawling. He heads for up and down places in the pen, the game clearly being to see how long it will take him to jolt his strange pyramid load to pieces. And right here develops what appears to be a strict rule of the game. Say there are seven in the pyramid, and the sixth from the bottom jostles off first, taking, of course, the seventh one with him. You'd naturally think the game done for that sixth and seventh alligator. But not at all. It seems that the sixth one is in disgrace for having been shaken off before the seventh one, who was top of the heap. Therefore, what does the seventh do but cling to the back of the sixth after they've fallen off and proceeds to ride Mr. Alligator No. 6 around the pen until Mr. Sandow Alligator has succeeded in dumping the whole shooting match. If the fourth is shaken off before the fifth, the fifth, like the seventh, proceeds to ride his disgraced "next" until Sandow gets rid of all his load, and another game is started.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Made the Paper Pay.

Papa Cobb, the old Harvard athlete, who returned from Dawson on the Roanoke with a big bag of gold, tells the following story about patriotism for the stars and stripes at Dawson:

"One day a man showed up in camp with a single copy of a newspaper containing the first account of Dewey's victory at Manila. This single paper was the first intimation we had of the great things our navy had been doing, and it was sought after more eagerly than gold.

"An enterprising Yankee purchased it for $10 and then hired Tammany hall for the evening. He charged 50 cents and packed the hall. He read the paper to the crowd, and after every sentence there was a regular warwhoop. It made the walls of the building tremble. The success of the venture was so pronounced that he rented the hall for the next night and reaped another harvest. He made $400 off that one newspaper and sold it to a miner who was going into the diggings for $50."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Corn Oil.

Some of the manufacturers of glucose in Chicago have turned their attention to the production of corn oil, an article extracted by pressure from the germ of the grain by a method similar to that used in the manufacture of linseed oil, leaving a residuum not unlike in its character the oil cake of commerce. It seems that in the production of glucose it was a matter of necessity first to extract the germ, this, for a long time, involving a waste. As against this, a company now turns out some 850 barrels of corn oil per day. Most of the oil goes to England for soapmaking. It is shipped in secondhand oil barrels, each of a weight, when filled, of 400 pounds, rated at the factory at 3 cents per pound. Some of the oil is used in this country principally in mixing cheap paint and for adulterating linseed oil. It is regarded as a rapid "drying" oil.

Hobson as a Kicker.

"Lieutenant Hobson," says Today of London, "whose sinking of the Merrimac before Santiago has made him famous, was at one time a resident in Paris, and was among the first to join the White Rovers' Football club, who pioneered the association game into France. W. H. Sheator, who was one of the founders, and who gave me this little bit of information, did not speak very highly of Hobson's play. He remarked: 'Hobson always played as though he did not know on which side he was on. He kicked all over the place, and among the most celebrated of these kicks was one that put a prominent member of our club to bed for six weeks.'"

Two Successful Games

The University football team passed through at noon today returning home from the south where they played two games, defeating their opponents in both. The first with University of Georgia, in Atlanta, Saturday won by the Carolina team by a score of 44 to 0; the second with the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, at Auburn, Ala, yesterday, won by the Carolina's, by a score of 24 to 0.

Carolina's game Saturday increases the interest in the game between the North Carolina and Virginia Universities, to be played in Richmond on Thanksgiving day. Carolina's prospects for making this a very close and exciting game, or possibly to win it, than ever before.

could abuse a bath tub most shamefully in fifteen minutes. But there is another kind of abuse of the bath tub in which the bather, instead of the tub is abused. There is a right and a wrong way to bathe. Ice cold baths are not best. Take one that is warm or tepid. Then by means of a shower reduce the temperature until it is cool, but not cold. If you have no shower bath the same results can be secured by the use of our Shower Bath Ring. The best bath tub appliance on the market, and only $2.00. Doesn't wet your hair.

The Social Standing

of most men is much higher than the sum of their income. To such men it must be good news to learn that they do not have to pinch themselves in order that they may pay the extravagant tailor's bills. We sell perfectly fitting clothes for business, semi-dress or full dress occasions of unquestionable style and superb qualities at prices which permit the saving of almost half tailor's bills. Our best clothes are made by the famous New York tailors, Messrs. Fecheimer, Fishel & Co., whose label on every garment is a guarantee that the clothes are equal to "custom made" in every particular. Therefore, whether it is a sack suit, a cutaway or a Prince Albert frock, a pair of trousers, a top coat or an overcoat that you need, do yourself the justice to at least see our offerings—and then go to your tailor if you like—but you won't.

$20,000 Worth of Clothing

Must Be Sold in the Next 30 Days

50 pr ct. less than Manufacturers Cost

Sale To Open

WEDNESDAY, November 23.

This stock is representing the production of one of the best and most popular Eastern clothing manufacturers, who finds himself today badly entangled financially, pushed to the very well of ruin, and must save his honorable name at all hazards. You must remember that this is no idle boast nor a statement of a fanciful mind, but we mean to substantiate every syllable we utter. We positively guarantee that our All Wool Clay Worsted Mens Suit for $6 50 must be as good in every detail as the kind sold here for $13.50. An all wool up to date Kersey suit for $5.50 must match any one sold for $12.50. The all wool Cashmere for $3.50 must surpass the $8 kind you get elsewhere. Our $2.50 suit must look as good and wear as good as any $6.50 suit in this market. Covered Cloth and Blue Kersey Overcoats for $4.50 and $5.00 we are satisfied to guarantee to be actually the same as the $10 and $12 goods sold by every retail dealer. Pants for 75 cents, $1 and $1.75 will take place of the best $1.75, $2.25 and $3.00 goods. If you don't find them as we say, bring them back and you shall get your money.

REMEMBER

this is is your first, and possibly the last chance in your entire lifetime, to purchase your clothing direct from the manufacturer at such ridiculously low prices. You are all invited to come, and must come early, for the goods will move fast and you don't want to miss it, the only thing left.

Remember the place. Our store is in the

McAdoo Building,

N. Balser, Manager. — Corner East Market and Davie Streets.

P. S.—The first gentleman entering our doors when we are ready for the opening of our sale, will be presented with a suit of clothing worth $8.00.
